

Jeeta Parikh, Administrative Assistant, joined the Merrick team over 7 years ago, to provide assistance in all operations of the office. She came to us after a break from employment as a member of the Bank of America Lending department for 10 years. Ms. Parikh had her collegiate education in Sciences in India. At T. F. Merrick Co., Inc., Ms. Parikh provides able guidance to tenants and vendors who have problems at the properties we manage, or have problems in understanding requirements posed on them by the lease/vendor contracts. Ms. Parikh ensures that Vendors have appropriate Insurance coverage and documentation prior to start of any work at the properties we manage.

Jeeta, as parent of an Eagle-Scout-son and Girl Scout Gold-Award-daughter, has enjoyed leading and serving in leadership and community activities herself. With a large circle of family and friends, she supports the local cultural, social and religious activities. In 2012, she delighted Lindsie Merrick, assuming role of host and guide during Lindsie's 2 week visit to India.
